

San Francisco - December 11, 2009

Buenos Hairies

Johnny Bueno Color Studio

Judging by appearances is tricky: Do it, and you're superficial. Don't, and you end up on another date with a dipshit in an Ed Hardy tee.

Regardless, you'll know you're in for something special when you spy Johnny Bueno's compact new color studio just off Union Square.

Bueno and co-owner Brent Minnich worked with Anthony Laurino of The Good Hotel to make the space a sanctuary: Deco furniture, soothing neutral walls, and bold abstract art set the stage for tranquil treatments. Clients look out over the Bay and the ballpark from windows lined by a succulent garden and can even pick their own music.

And then there's Bueno's color expertise. The man trained with Aveda Academy London and Toni&Guy in France, and offers everything from super-shiny semipermanent glosses to Brazilian blowouts.

Sulfate and paraben-free Kevin Murphy products let Bueno advertise his principles.

Without the help of a sparkly faux tattoo.

Johnny Bueno Color Studio, 166 Geary Street, between Stockton Street and Grant Avenue, suite 1005 (415-362-2668 or johnny-bueno.com).

Locations

Johnny Bueno Color Studio
166 Geary St
bt Grant Ave & Stockton St
San Francisco, CA 94108
415-362-2668

- website

MAP IT!

Photos: Photos: Little Rooms

© 2010 DailyCandy, Inc. All rights reserved. DailyCandy is strictly editorial. There is no pay for play.

Editorial Policy Privacy Policy Terms & Conditions Artwork by Miss Capricho